

CRAIG PRICE

“Very funny and dead-on ...

Craig is one of the best presenters we have ever had.”

*– Doug Kruse
Employee Development Manager, Baker Hughes.*

Craig helps people take a unique look at how their natural thought processes (regardless of others’ opinions) can help them succeed.

His funny, straightforward approach to everyday situations and experiences gives audiences proof that their options are not limited. Examining self-doubt and cynicism, he demonstrates that understanding how you think is more important than what you think.

As a speaker and entertainer, Craig has helped organizations and individuals find the path to success. A former professional stand-up comedian, experienced actor and certified instructor, Craig has a background in customer service, information technology and safety. Voted Houston’s Funniest Person, Craig uses a blend of sharp wit, intelligence and straight talk to deliver entertaining and surprisingly informative programs that allow people to believe in themselves under any circumstances.

Keynote titles and descriptions...

The Power of Negative Thinking Positive solutions for success

Explore how to use your natural thought processes to create a consistently successful approach. This innovative, entertaining program takes a realistic look at how to convert negative feelings and thoughts into productivity.

Being defensive in an offensive world Safety solutions for success

From alligator wrestling to running with scissors, this humorous journey about a serious subject is fun, educational and motivational. A former employee of the Department of Safety and a certified instructor, Craig gives you a real-world view on how you can minimize incidents by using common sense, knowing what's important and improving your attitude.

Whatever happened to customer service? Customer service solutions for success

Craig takes you on a search for the elusive art of customer service done well. This program pulls no punches when it comes to the current state of customer concerns and shows how to recapture your service culture before it becomes extinct.

888.833.2902

craig@wynnsolutions.com

Partial Client List:

Baker Hughes

ExxonMobil

Universal Computer Systems

Komatsu

Craig's program attendees include:

Halliburton

NASA

Dow Chemical

KBR

UPS

Shell Oil